Mr. Henry S. Perham, Chairman

The Chelmsford Social Library,

Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

Dear Sir:-

I have submitted the enclosed articles for your warrant and accompanying forms of votes to Mr. Fisher representing the town and residuary legatees under the will of Joseph Warren, and he finds them satisfactory. I presume there would be no objection to combining the two articles in one if you so desire, but as submitted a form of vote accompanies each article. After your association has held its meeting and passed on these questions I will prepare the papers for the assent of the residuary legatees to the transfer in accordance with the vote of your corporation.

I remain

Yours Very Truly

A. P. Sawyer

(I assume from your statement that the bequest from Adams Emerson was unconditional and that there is no one to object to this disposition of the small balance of the bequest remaining in the possession of your association).

38 AND 39
HILDRETH BUILDING.

Lowell, Mass., Jan. 1, 1898

Mr. Henry S. Perham,

Dear Sir:-

I was unable to see one of the Justices of the Supreme Court to-day, but I am advised by the Clerk, that it would be advisable to have the trustees sign the petition. I will send a paper out to you Monday for the trustees to sign, if it is convenient, I would like all the trustees to sign. You can elect officers, or the present ones may hold over as you see fit.

What do your by-laws say as to what constitutes membership, or do the trustees constitute all the members of the corporation?

Respectfully yours,

M. L. Hamblett
B.D.W.
